Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Eugene "Bud" Rasmussen and Lillian Wickstrom were married on a very hectic and historic day back in November of 1943; and,

WHEREAS, Not only was November twelve significant as the first day of their new life together, but it was also the day that Bud left for the service during World War II; and,

WHEREAS, Fortunately, the pace has been reduced significantly over the last forty years of marriage, but Bud and Lil have still led very busy lives; and,

WHEREAS, Their largest responsibility (and their biggest satisfaction) has been the raising of four fine children: Richard, Susan, Kathy, and Jack. Subsequently, these kids have rewarded Bud and Lil with six grandchildren of their own; and,

WHEREAS, As the major breadwinner of the family, Bud has been very active in law enforcement. Since 1959, he has worked in various capacities for the Union County Sheriff's Department. For the past eleven years, he has been the county's much respected sheriff. Lillian has done her share, too. To help the family out, and to help put the kids through college, Lil has cooked meals for the prisoners, served as a matron, and worked as a waitress; and,
